❖ Interest and Hobbies:

Photography. It is one of my greatest passions and it allows to express my personal perspective on life. In the last few years, I have refined my skills and style in Reportage and Portraiture. My last work is a Reportage Project in Madagascar for an Italian NGO.

Traveling. I have travelled extensively, and travel is, and has always been, the bread that has nourished my interest in the environment and people. Being exposed to diverse cultures, religions and peoples always enriched me very much and it has made me aware that this world needs to be lived in its entirety and not in the partiality that we are accustomed to.
